

Binational Association of Schools of Communication
Asociación Binacional de Escuelas de Comunicación

16th Encuentro

Communication in Action: Building Community Across Borders
April 17 and 18 ~ University of San Diego

ESSAY CONTEST

The opening panel of the 2009 Encuentro will feature the winners of the Binacom undergraduate essay contest.

Please submit a 1000 word essay on the conference theme:
Communication in Action: Building Community Across Borders.

Essays could include one or more of the following ideas:
perceptions of "other," immigration, mediated representations, news coverage, binational organizations, or other relevant topics.

One winner will be chosen from each country. The winner will read his or her essay during the opening ceremony and will receive free registration for the conference.

Submissions may be in either Spanish or English and should be submitted electronically to kmoran@sandiego.edu to be distributed for review.

Essays will be reviewed by Binacom members who represent participating institutions.

Essays due April 3, 2009.

Winners will be announced April 10. Winners must attend the Plenary Session at the Binacom Encuentro...April 17, 2009.